
For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government shall be upon His shoulder and His Name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Isaiah 9:6
Is 2010 Over Already?

It doesn’t seem possible that another year is drawing to a close! As 2011 dawns, there will be many resolutions made. Most will fall by the wayside before Valentine’s Day, but some people will make serious course corrections in their lives. Some bad habits may be broken and some new good habits may take their place. Two good habits that could change your life forever are daily Bible reading and participation in Community.

Spending some time each day reading God’s Word and praying are the most effective ways to strengthen your fellowship with Jesus. Think about the other relationships in your life. How did you build and strengthen them? By spending time together! A helpful resource called “365 Key Chapters” is available at the Resource Desk and can be downloaded at www.fellowshipnwa.org. Many other devotionals and reading plans are also available in book stores and online. Fifteen minutes of your 24 hour day represents approximately 1% of your time. How you use this 1% of your day can make an incredible difference in your life.

Gathering regularly with other believers in Christ-centered Community is another great habit to strengthen or develop in 2011. If you are not in a small group of some sort, Community Group is a great place to start. Groups will resume in January and there will be new groups beginning as well (see the Communicator tab). In Community, you will find people who can be themselves as they live life together. It’s a place to belong, grow and serve. If you are looking for a way to know Christ better and build lasting relationships with other believers, “click, come by or call” Community Ministries. We are on the web at community.fellowshipnwa.org, in the lobby at the Community Booth or a phone call away at 479.659.3617.

Make 2011 the year that you respond to Jesus’ invitation to know Him through His Word and through His people!
